LARETAMA

THE SYMBOL

The blazing sun shines down from above,
A wandering breeze waves something overhead:
A glorious banner which has often led
The legions brave who've sworn to it their love.
And as it flies as gently as a dove
I see the white so pure and scarlet red
That stand for purity and for blood shed
By those brave men who showed their patriot's love
For land, and liberty from tyrant's chain
And justice, for which stands the field of blue.
The sight of it o'er flows my heart with pride,
And as I look with joy on it again,
My soul drinks in the beauty of its hue
And to salute my arm leaps from my side.

With courage and stout hearts, let us accept and treasure the guardianship of a government by the people, of the people, and for the people. We glory in the challenge; God grant we do not fail in our trust, but prove ourselves fully worthy.

IN MEMORIAN

This volume deacated to the I ving and virile American youth must needs also record the names of two of our number for whom the Book of Life is closed. Though we are denied their daily presence, we know that having once been a part of us they will always be so. Their ideas are still our ideals, their dreams are ours to fulfil. The finest tribute we can offer is to make a determined and united effort to uphold the ideals of Americanism and keep the America they loved "the land of the free and the home of the brave" * * * *

From Above

Side of Auditorium and Quadrangle

Within these walls American Youth finds ample opportunities to enrich his life with varied experiences that will broaden his understanding and stimulate his abilities. The fundamental truths of today are those of yesterday, but youth must rediscover and accept them for himself. Then only will come renewed vitality and fulfillment.

San Antonio Board of Education

Mrs. Gunther Orsinger

Mr. J. E. Seibert

Mrs. F. J. Winter

Concerning Defende,

that a system of universal public education is the greatest common defense the American people have erected, or can erect. In Texas, over time we gained liberty with our blood and arms this in substance has been the faith of our forefathers. Much has been accomplished in this respect but more than ever, Texans must now "look to their guns" and determine to go forward

Happily, in San Antonio, we have a Board of Education whose members are not only aware of the grave responsibility placed upon our schools, but who want to do something about it. Guided in policy by a superintendent of wide experience and expert knowledge, and directed by a president whose earnestness is sincere, these members of the Board of Education make constant endeavor to establish the principles of democracy in our system of education. We pay tribute here to their earnestness

Dr. James P. Hollers President Board of Education

Parent-Teacher Association

Some one has sind that the only things we keep are the things we give away. That fact has never been more true than it is today as it applies to Americanism. We as American a tizens can not retain the democratic principles of America unless we give them away to every individual living in these United States. Democracy is hest accomplished by a continuous process of education, and the Brackennia to Farent Teacher Association has shared in that process.

Our P T A of 570 members has striven this year to purn for and participate in an ingrational and informational program that would reach every parent of every child in Brackennidge at all times realizing the child is a direct product of the home, the school

Mr JUEN K WELF MED V F HADTINDS the church and the group with whom he associates. Our theme for the year 'Know Your Schools' has been highly instructive to parents in helping them to know the courses oftered to their children. Our westare department has taken care of many children through medical supplies and treatment food and clothes. Our Student Aid his helped place 19 students on NYA in Brackening the School, there by enabling them to take advantage of a High School education, the inherent right of every American child

Our President and Principal were sent to represent Brackenriage at both District and State Conventions and we were also represented at the National Convention. We sponsored the Honor Banquet again this year the only one of its kind given in Texas. In short, the Brackenriage Parent-Teacher Association has co-operated in every way possible to bring parent, teacher and child into a happy democratic relationship which makes the most fertile ground in which Americanism may grow. It is the

Thomas B. Portwood
Assistant Superintendent

Administration

Ever aware of the responsibility involved in shaping the policies which are most conducive to our welfare, the executives pictured here give constant study and thoughtful consideration to the problems involved

For purposes of co-ordination, Mr. Portwood acts as Assistant Superintendent of the Senior Schools. Matters pertaining to the curricula are necessarily his primary concern. Therefore, recognizing and rightly interpreting new situations brought on by modern progressive education are responsibilities placed under his capable supervision

Roy R. Kay Vice-Principal

Supervision

To direct the varied activities of a school with an enrollment of some 2,400 students is an arduous task. Mr. Gary, as principal, attacks his problem with intelligence and courage. He shows a sympathetic understanding of the needs pertaining to both teacher and pupil

Mr. Kay, as vice principal, and Miss Moore, as dean, bring to their work an earnestness of purpose which enables them to exert a helpful influence over all who come to them for guidance. This earnestness is tempered by friendliness and enriched by experience. Though their problems are many their enthusiasm is undimmed for the happiness of the students of Brackenridge

Enos Gary Principal

If American Ideals

fund expression in Brackenridge life, it is partly due to the fact that our executives encourage a democratic form of procedure in our daily routine. No one person is responsible for the success, or failure, of a day's work because many hands and many wills have had a part. We are encouraged to work together, one for another whether it be student, clerk, executive, or teacher. We strive to attain efficiency through co-operative living, and the result is a happy environment at Brackenridge

The Common Wellare

of Brackenridge seems to be the concern of all. In our offices, an efficient staff is always ready to serve. Mary Louise Riegel as registrar, is kept busy checking credits, transferring grades, and compiling various scholastic records. Lindy Conrad, secretary, and Joan Roberts, clerk, live in a whirl of activities all day long. Students act as assistants and receive splendid training in office procedure. Three cheers, we say, for our hardworking office personnel as we acknowledge their loyal service

WE, THE PEOPLE

We, the People of America speak
Of freedom that is growing weak.
Of glorious freedom we have heard.
To keep our hearts forever stirred.

We, the People of America say,
For our freedom we'll always pray.
Each American must do his part.
To keep his free American heart.

Carra Lee Byler was made a special cade for the express puruse of decorating the gym. She and her committee deserve much edit for the success of the dance. Much campaigning was done to Charles Hetherington with posters and jingles written by Irby finite for the bulletin. Socially, the year was successfully climaxed to the traditional picnic in Koehler Park, April 15. Maneuvers were anned by various committees and the food administrator took over the job of supplying the draftees with refreshments. The program as successfully carried out, and a day's fun was had by all turing the year, the class met with no war clouds, or ominous reats of any kind. With the eager hope of returning with blaring ligles, beating drums, and waving flags next year, the Junior Class

PIONEERS

By Joyce Neal

They dream dol days when they could see
A land of opportunity—
One till d with hopes, and free and just
To quell their mighty search for lust,
They were hopeful pioneers

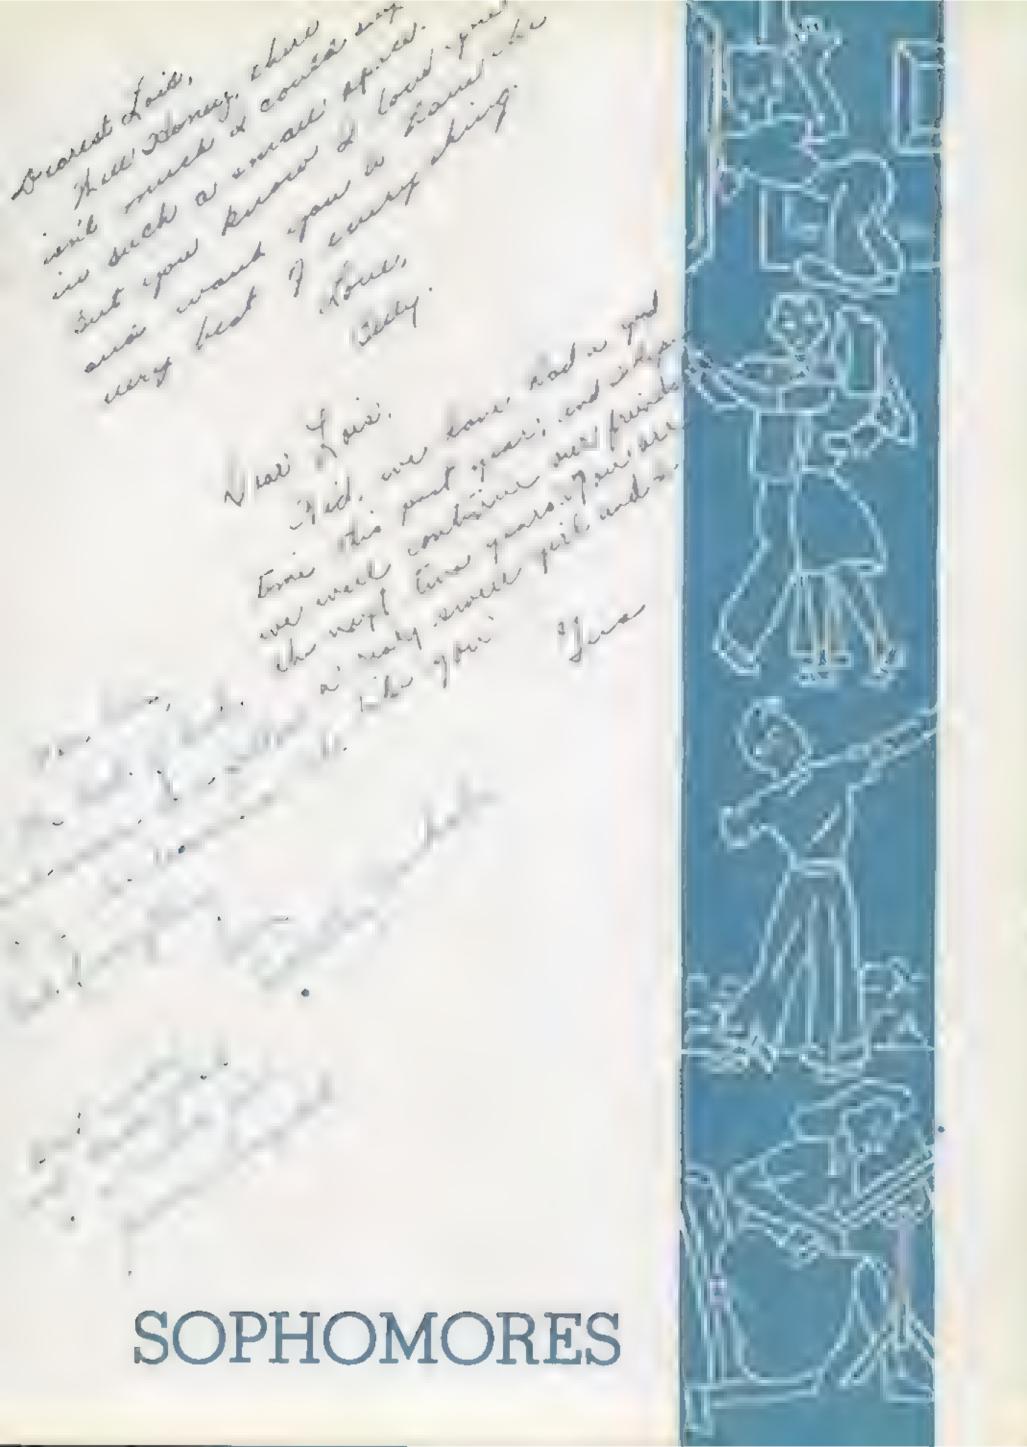

Their lives were not too much to give
In order that their heirs might live
In days of freedom, wealth, and love
With rights to worship Him above,
They were willing pioneers

No work too hard for them to do
They slav d to make our country true—
They clear d its helds and planted seeds
And gladly gave to man his needs,
They were working pioneers

They proudly said our lands new name
And often pray'd for it to gain
A word of praise from other shores
To pay them for their many chores,
They were faithful pioneers

Our hopes and dreams are worthy too
But do we leel that we can do
As much as they who came before
And gave to us this land of lore?
Are we also pioneers?

Today our help is needed for Our country must stay out of war And this is why we must appear To 'rase our land of all its fear Let us be modern pioneers

With a membership drive to score up hundreds of sophs on its aid-up list, the Sophomore Class began its program of activities in eptember. The end of the drive was marked by . Valentine Party iven for paid up members with reshmen as guests. By offering a tith of its funds to help to BHS Band, and also by individual contibutions of loyal sophs, the class entered the tong season as an interest of loyal sophs. The class looks forward eagerly to extreme all other events. The class looks forward eagerly to extreme hoping to work up class interest equal to this year's and of sophomores. With a fine record as Sophomores, the class I '43 feels confident that it can to the program of activities in the program of

With the spirit of true Americanism, the members of the Vocal Department beg in one of their most successful years. The Mixed Chorus took part in the Purple Parade and also sang with the various vocal classes from the balcony during the beautiful Christmas assembly. The second term, this group settled down to extraserious work preparatory to entering the Solo Contest at Sur. Marcos in April. At San Marcos, it also sang with the muse I Fectival Chorus of all High Schools entered from District VI when Fred Edgert's Cantata Love Divine' was presented. The Mixed. Chorus, enjoyed, lighter, mements, too when it gave a Ministrel Snow with the school Orchestra's valuable assistance. The last events in which this group participated were the baccalaureate and graduation services.

Americanism end odies service in its creed and one of the highest aims of the Mixed Chorus is to respond to requests for music frem various community and city organizations. Another aim is to become familiar with and develop a joy of singing as much fine music as possible. All these aims the Music Department strives earnestly to attain and each year we hope to come closer to our goal.

Music is a strong part of America itself, and how better to express patriotism to our beloved country than through the pulsing cadences of stirring marches and evertures. It is a re-of-the many hereings of a democracy a blessing that should be thought of as highly as my of the other priviledes we hold. Our director. Mr. Zoeller has captured this feeling in the latest composition. Third Army Maneuvers which is included in the band's folio of marches. Contest numbers this year are Il Guarney overture by A. Carlo Gomez, and the Grand Symphony by Alexander Borodin. Many other numbers of lighter character have been played in school programs along the year. The band of eighty pieces this year succeeded in winning 1st division in concert playing, first in sight reading, and first in marching at the Texas Music Educators' Festival contest, held at San Marcos, March 14th. A number of soloists and ensembles also received first division ratings at the regional contest. Having won these honors, the band then prepared to enter the National Contest her 1 Marcon 10 and 10 art Ware.

With our thoughts turned toward Americanism due to conditions in the world today, the Brackenriage High School Orche trained expressed its patriotism by playing our taverite Sousa Marches and other compositions by American composers. Despite the lack of instruments and other handicaps, the Brack rendge Orchestra entered the State Munic Educators' Centest in

The organization received second division which the judges define San Marcos this year as an unusual performance in many respects kut not worthly of the highest rating due to minor defects for a performance of distinctive quality. The contest numbers included Stradella by Flyon Flotow, Silvan's Overture by C. M. von Weber and a string number at. air for G String by Back. The most outstanding performance of the Orchectra this year was the Music on Parade 'a program given annually by the Music Department. Some of the most custanding talent in San Antonio was presented. Since no program is complete with out music the orchestra plays for most of the assembles and programs at school belides many outside entertainments. Among the numbers played this year were Rus. in and Ludinilla by Michael Glinka Blick Eyes by Harry Horlick and Dince Orientale by L Luboursky The orchestra consists of about forty members and is a fine playing organi zation. This credit is due largely to the use of The Victor Method, which is the tree text book prescribed and published by the State Department of Education. The book includes al, rudiments of Instrumental Music beainning with Book I and continuing through Book VIII This gives every teacher in the Public Schools of Texas the advantage of teaching the fundamentals of music in a thorough manner, Juanita Wood

Brackenridge Drum and Bugle Carps

The exacting discipline and the fine training necessary for a true American citizen is exemplified by one of the youngest organizations in our school, the Drum and Bugle Corps. It is true that this year the organization is smaller than ever before but the mentions have snown a remarkably good spirit in learning to play bugles and arums of spirit that is Indeed American in its every form. While we have not appeared in public as much as we should the entire Corps worked hard to enter the Battle of Flowers Association Band Festiva. Contest Illienine Koepp, the first drum major is truly an untiring worker and it is through her leadership and that of Mr Zoeller our never-to-be excelled sponsor that we hope to attain the high standards set for our goal. has acted as the power of success and liberty behind the ever turning wheel of Bracken ridges by monthly publication. The Times Therefore in detrance of the Old Flu vill iin whose deeds kept the greater part of the staff from enjoying our usual Christmas party, the Journalism Department went picnicking in Brackenridge Park We were a cyous bunch despite the fact that the cold drinks were only two hours late and a storm which sent everyone scurrying blew up in the west. The Times, however has not spent all its time having fun Its staff and reporters, namely Dora Haray, Dwight Hamilton Betty Lee Fox and Doris Harper, have taken out time from play to win Quil and Scroll honors in headline, sports, and feature story writing and copyreading. The spring term staff headed by Dora Hardy and Laurie Beizung as Co Editors-in Chief got off to an excellent start with an enthusiastic, supporting group of journalists. Margaret Junge scooped all other papers and personally interviewed such celebrities as Ernest Webb and Nelson Eady The Times also found itself with a Quill and Scroll medal winner for headline writing Dora Hardy Doris Harper received honorable mention in copyreading Ever striving for impres sive editorials, the statt actually put into practice its good old American custom of think ing Doris Beard helped brighten everything in the long run by her excellent business management, and by bringing home the ads Too, Quill and Scroli again awarded The Times the International Honor Rating, the highest honor a high school paper may attain climaxing a year of hard work

As American Youth today endeavers to be worthy of the standard set for it by the founders of this nation, we, the members of the La Retama staff of 1941, have tried to make the most of every opportunity afforded us to uphold the standards and goals set for us by staffs of former years. In early fall when La Retama received its rating of All American from the National Scholastic Press Association, we were challenged to put out another annual of like quality

Due to the four months absence of our sponsor, Miss Scholz, many phases of annual work which we had previously been only vaguely conscious of became our own responsibilities. Our most trying and consequently most strengthening experience was in learning to shift for ourselves. Mrs. Bogel proved the truth of the adage that a triend in need is a friend indeed, by helping us over the rough places. Despite the fact that the work was intense at times social activities were not neglected. A lancheon given by Dorothy

Baetz was a lovely affair. A picnic celebrating the annual's having gone to press was the gayest ever with everyone giving vent to relaxed and relieved spirits. The All-Publications Banquet was formal and as the new staff was announced, we suddenly realized that some one else would take over in 1942

The staff now voices its gratitude to all who had a part in the publication of the 1941 La Retama. We realize that means many people interested and helpful students, untiring salesmen and staff members, a faithful sponsor and above all, Mrs. Baetz, without whose help our advertising goal could not possibly have been reached. If the annual pleases those whose confidence was placed in our hands the staff will be humbly grateful for the opportunity of contributing to this phase of Brackenridge life

A sentiment which we all appreciate is the love of our country. A citizen, who loves his nation, must strive to do good, must always be active and try to make nimself more worthy of the privileges he enjoys. The members of the Hueben and Drueben Staff believe in showing respect and love for their country. The February issue of their paper was again cated to the lives of Washington and Lincoln while the March and April issues dealt with important events in American and Texas history. Other issues dealt with the Thanks giving Christinus and Easter themes. Each member had charge of a definite section of the paper, working hard in order to make it outstanding, and incidentally to receive the honor of becoming a member of the Quill & Scroil. By faithfully performing his duties and being a worthy member of the staft each student felt that he was training himself to be come a loyal and helphic citizen not only of his community, but of a great democracy.

America, we salute youl As Purple lackets we have taken several opportunities throughout the year to express our Americanism At the Thanksqiving game we executed a patriotic drill. Each Furple Jacket carried an American flag and the group torme a the letters U.S.A. Lorothy Guy and Louise Moyer depicted Uncle Sam and the American Eagle. Another patriotic and, was given in commemoration of Navy Day. The Purple Jackets were white sanor capit and tormed a large anchor.

Besides our patriotic arills many others were presented at the various football games. The Purple Jackets have also en eyed many other activities. The school year opened with a Sing Song, which was toliowed by the annual hound Up. Later we enjoyed a skating party, a theatre party a luncheon a picture a anneel and a banquet. The eventful year was one long to be remembered. Done Zirkel

During the spring term of 1941, five hundred and thirty eight girls in Brackenridge High School engaged in physical education activities. There are four distinct aivisions in the department thereby enabling each student to be classified according to her ability. The appartment strives to reach each girl's interest by offer ing a wide range of activities.

The program is organized into three week periods in order to provide for a diversified seasonal schedule. The individual sports include tennis golf, archery and paddle tennis. These sports tend to have many carry-over values for a wise and healthful use of leisure time. Captain ball, soft ball, and volley ball constitute the tavorite team gaines. The remainder of the program is composed of social dancing (a big favorite), informal games, rhythmics such as clog, folk, character and athletic dances, and tumbling. Good sportsmanship, cooperation, initiative and self-control, as well as skills, are a few of the objectives worked for by the physical education classes.

The possibilities of the Brackenridge tennis teams are greater than ever before. The boys' team. Don Goldbeck Tony Martinez, Emil Martinez, and Clifton Krueger started the season by defeating the Corpus Christi team in a practice tournament. The girls' team consisting of Ray Bridges, Dorothy Fly. Elaine Marek, Marteen Ronk and Betty Roseland aid not start the season as well, and lost out in their tilt with the Buccaneers. Coach Lingle then took the team to a tournament in Victoria where the boys' double team was lorced to default because of rain. Don Goldbeck was defeated in the semi-finals by Waily the tournament champion. Marteen Ronk came through to bring the girls' singles championship to Brackenridge.

The Brackenridge Eagles won the lion's share of honors in the finals of the City Tour nament grabbin; three out of four titles. The only one they missed was in boys' singles, in which Jetterson lought off a closing rally by Emil Martinez to cop the crown after winning the first two sets. The scores were 6-3-6-1, 6-8, 6-4. In girls' singles, Marteen Ronk of Brackenridge aeteated Dorothy Taylor of Jefferson 6-0, 6-1, while in girls' doubles. Betty Rose, and and Elaine Marek defeated the Tech combine 7-5-6-0. The Brackenridge boys' doubles chalked up the third straight set victory by taking the Jefferson team into camp, 6-2, 6-3, 6-2. In the district meet, the boys' doubles and girls singles won first place.

AN AMERICAN QUESTIONS

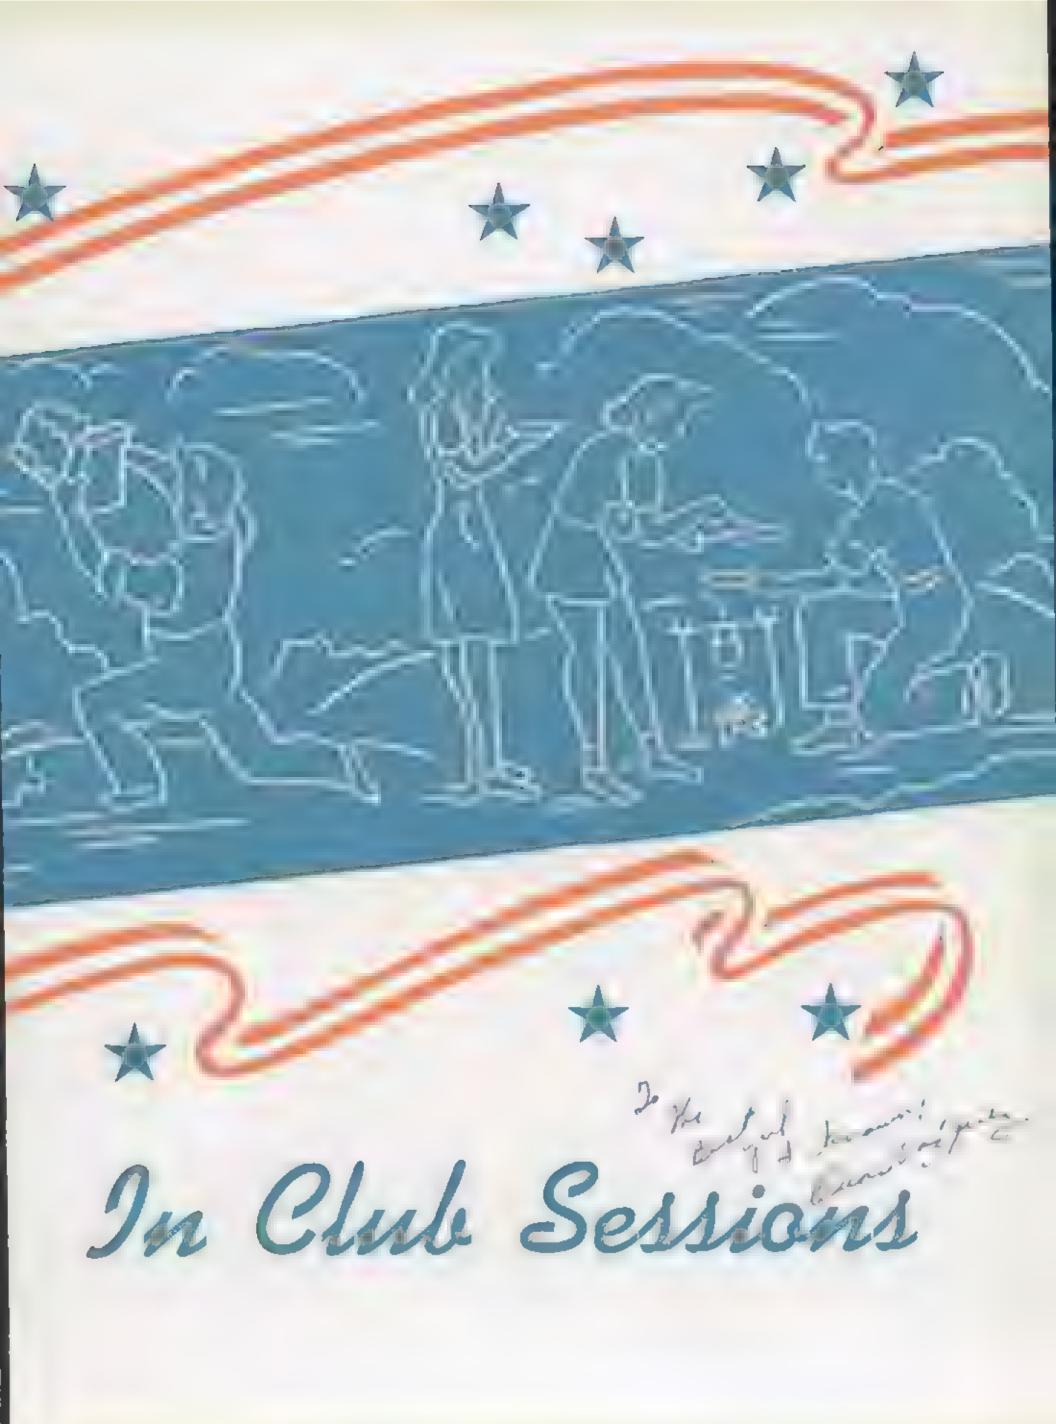

What is a concentration camp? Why cannot Britains burn a lamp As we Americans can do When night has come and skies are blue? What is a bomb? What is a gun? What makes men fear and cry and run? Why is a buby left alone Because a man is now unknown? What is this thing that they call greed! Who is this man who wants to lead The entire world into this fight. And why do some call him "bright"? What is a war? And what is hate? Is this all caused by greedy Fate? What is an ally, or a fee? We pray: Don't ever let us know!

America,' one of the beautiful songs of our free country echoed through the halls of Brackenriage just before the close of the first Lanier meeting. Throughout the year the thoughts of Laniers as have those of all true Americans, have often turned to patriotic subjects and often too to fun and recreation. The first meeting was held in the form of a party in the cafeteria. The officers were hostesses and the atternoon proved very en dyable. In October new members were selected and the tollowing week the formal initiation was held at the home of Betty Lou Rutledge. The traits of character which the organization upholds were exemplified by the officers of the club. Instead of our annual Book Week Assentacy, the Laniers gave a Book Week Tea. Invitations were sent to the faculty and presidents of various student organizations. The tea was a great success.

The Laniers prepared two large baskets for the needy at Christmas time Camera Day, which was in January attorded the Laniers much hilarity. It was a new experience for the Laniers nut perhaps it will develop into an annual affair as everyone seemed to en oy the occasion. In February, the organization cele brated the nirth lay of Sianey Lanier after whom the club was named. The celebration was held in the cateteria of cursimool in the form of a social. At this social the officers for the spring term were installed a program was en loyed and retreatments were served carrying out the Valentine theme. The annual dance entitled Shamiroak Swing portraying the idea of St. Patrick's Day was very successful. In May new cincers were installed. We are proud to be Americans and find the infinite infinite. Think God that we are Americans let us prove worthy at all times.—Agnes Boezinger.

With a truly American spirit and zest for things that are fine and right the Modern Dianas began the 1940-41 term with the election of officers for our own small democracy. Eilen June Waliace became president and with the aid of Miss Concha Chapa our sponsor led the members through a most interesting and profitable year of activities. The or januation was founded in 1933 with the purpose of developing good sportsman hip and the clean minds necessary for good citizenship. The name Modern Lana came from Diana the goadess of the moon and chase. New as you probably know. Dianas are primarily interested in outdoor sports and a great variety of such activities are included in our program. Tennis skating horseback riding, and bicycling were the most important. The New Year was started off by the Diana's semi-annual initiation of new members. It was held at the home of one of our otticers and was a lovely aftair. In spring, horse back riding was suggested so March I tound the Dianus jolling along on the backs of the spirited horses found at Woodlawn Stables. We were sore and tired afterwards but a good time wis hard by all and as one Diana expressed it. The experience was worth that and a lot more tool. In April every member was put on a committee to prepare for the annual dance given in May. It is our biggest social event, and the only invitation dance of the year making a perfect closing for the term's activities. Yes an all-American closing for an all-American club—a club for the members, by the members and of the members.—Olive Jo Nelson

True Americanism rightly interpreted by man is loyalty to traditions, interests and ideals. The founders of the Cito Ciub instituted patriotism as their theme and it is only natural that the girls chose National Defense for the term of '41. In keeping with the chosen theme one of the first suggestions to be followed was the change of poppies which have long been used on Armistice Day in memory of the World War neroes to red, white, and kive poilipons for the faculty in recognition of those who were called by the Draft. A Rush Tea was followed by a reception for the new members at which dolls were dressed in rea, white, and blue. At the usual Cerelia for our mothers, Miss Stratton fittingly presented the story of Ruth. The term closed with a merry, jo round banquet at which Wilma Ann Moseley retired as president and was succeeded by Dorothy Baetz.

Bright-eyed and eager Chos lace a busy year of activities.

The Hi Y Club of Brackenridge in the year 1940-1941 started off with a bang. For many years our club has been outstanding in school activities. Early in November our club helped the 20-30 Club sponsor the Milk Drive. The 1500 cans of milk we received from generous students went to clinics who help needly children all over San Antonio Following the successful milk drive in which all Brackenridge coloperated most neurtly the Beat Jeff Prom. Was given at the school gym. This was given the evening helpre the Turkey Day Game and everyone who attended had the Y M. C. A. Fullding. In fact the Hi Y is an auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. Fullding. In intramural competition we did not make the record as we have in the past We had two boys in our club who were basketball lettermen, and lightlootball lettermen and therefore were ineligible for intramural competition. The outstanding social event after Christmas was a dance given in January It was called the Black Out Prom because we had a colored orchestra. Needless to say it was a pig success, beth socially and financially. The money raised helped pay for the registration tee of the delegates to the Older Boys Conference at Beaumont later on in spring. The Conterence was a wonderful experience for the delegates who represented our club and indirectly helped to inspire the rest of us too. To Mr. H. R. Alberts our club sponsor and to Mr. W. To live in America, the land of the free, brings an ple apportunity to live happily together. The Wa Kapa Club is a group of happy friends finding pleasure both in work and in play. The club was founded in 19.10 by Miss Georgia Armstrong. At that time its purpose was to stimulate an appreciation of good literature and art. It has since been changed to a social club. The gails in the club, with the aid of Miss Allen our sponsor all work together, and in doing so have had many good times. To start the new year off right, the club held an election of the new members. This year a tea was riven in order that the girls might become acquainted with the prospective members. The social meetings of the club have been varied. The first social function was a Hallowe en party, and of course it was an incrinous affine. The usual apprint of missing was aster and the members were but y with prints.

In November a formal initiation of the newly elected girls was held. It was a candle light service and greatly impressed the new girls with the duties of a good club member. In December, the club presented its customary Christmas tree to the school. It certainly made things look gay. The club also gave a Christmas a nice. The plas were very effective and appropriate in red, white, and blue and it was truly an American Christmas. In January, a theatre party was given and the following month a luncheon at which the officers were installed. In March, the girls and their mothers met for a Mothers' Tea. April a rought us a particulation with weithers burns and all the trimmings. Americanism? Events abroad auring the past year have made everyone more conscious of Americanism and all that it stands for, than ever before. With the world about us in such an unsettled condition, it is only natural that in our daily life, in our thoughts church school, and club, if ever should attempt to see for ourselves what makes us a land of the free and a home of the brave." Therefore, our program this year included a study of the administrative officers. Social activities also came in for their share of attention. The Stevenson Literary Club was organized in 1917 by Miss Alice Stone. At present, the club is sponsored by Mrs. Pauline Berne. Under her leadership, we have enjoyed many happy hours together. The important project of each year is sponsoring a Christ mas party for the orphans of the city. The student body of Brackeninge contributes financially, but our plub carries out the plans, and does the work.

The program of our club is so arranged as to take care of both literary de velopment and social activities. As is our annual custom, the Stevensons had the children of several of the local organizations as their guests at a theatre party at the Texas Theatre at Christmas time. Santa Claus greeted the children in the locally and presented each child with a gift and a stocking filled with goodles. The children were very happy to have been remembered by Brack children. Our such a appraisance were unlieved in a Rush Tea which was given in hor or of prospective members. In November, we enjoyed a Masquerade Dance held in the Gins Gyn. In March, a truly American custom was the order of the day, when the children is the algebraic Games dancing, and an abundance of tood were enjoyed by al. May brought the year to a fitting climax with a lovely party let honoring the arribiating seniors. Thus another happy and busy year came to an end.

Students of Brackenridge were loyal not only to their school but also to their country as was snown by their aid given in the Children's Crusade. Through the Student Council Brackenridge made a large contribution to this worthy cause. In September the color drive was stated with prizes offered to the representatives selling the most colors. Along with the real white and blue stickers and narrier were also lives such as purple and white of Bracken radge. During the metry Yalethe Lemon the Stiltert Council sponsored a Christmas Backet Drive. Each of the level ty representatives of this worthly or genization planned at harket in his advicting and many level people were were dated for at Christmas. True Americans should always strive to foster friendly relationships and therefore. The Large is held annually in order to promote a feeling of good-will among the students.

Every Thursday an Open Forum is held with Mr Gary, our principal, presiding. Student problems are alscussed and the results of the discussions are delivered throughout the school by the Council representatives. In this way the students are well informed in al. matters pertaining to the school. Kent Hayes one of our out, randing members attended the Southern Association of Student Councils in Tuisa and brought track interesting information concerning similar organizations in the South. In February representatives, were sent to attend the Bexar County Student Leadership Association. Social problems and interschool activities were discussed and reports were carried back to the various schools for discussion. Delegates, including our president Ralph Godfrey, at tende if the state convention in Port Arthur in March. The year was brought to a happy close by the annual dince in April and a pionic in May. Members of the Los Hidalgos Club take their place among the best citizens of Brackenridge. Long before the phrase 'good neighbor' had been made funcus in the Western Hemisphere. Los Hidalgos was already a good neighbor to in the school community in which it lives. Like other good neighbors they are often a near upon to lend a helping hand. Contributions are always made to the Griphans. Christings Fund to the hed Cross and to other causes as the demonstrated. Neighbors should be triendly, so the Club has several social events on it year. Under the sponsorship of Miss Jary and Miss Spratt the Pan American Club was one of the first clubs in Brackenridge High School to foster the work of Pan Americanism. Our motto is "One for all and all for one!" and the aim of our club is mainly to establish friendly relations and lasting peace among the American nations. Since there are many things to learn about Latin America, the information given to us by speakers at our meetings has aided in promoting a teeling of friendship with, and understanding of these neighboring countries. We nerieve the Americas should be neighborly. During the past term the Fan American Club has had several interesting programs, and it has been custom try to have a Mysterious Box Sale each December as a means of them. If it is a Through a study program a more intelligent citizenship is prepared for the lattice by disease, and defense.—Mary Louise Obregon.

With the rise of patriotism in Brackenridge came the rise of membership for the 'Digit Diggers' Forward march was given by President Paul Kneup per assisted by General Agnes Morgan. To keep active and alert the club had a picnic at Brackenridge Park, giving all members zest with which to start off the new term. In November a successful cake sale paid for this page and turthered the plans for a gay Christmas party. Being a private party, the most hand some boys in Brackenridge were present. Candid Cameras were popular at the February picnic and the mathematicians were busy with their cameras throughout the afternoon. The spring was heralded by a Vilentine party in room 334. An abundance of food and interesting games gave to it the symbol of a 'Digit Digger' social. The evenasting fellowship en oyed by the members gives proof that the 'Digit Diggers' are following the American way.

Youth in America has a great deal to look forward to. The one thing that brings these wonderful plessings to us is the Constitution of the United States. This Constitution is our very life and without it we would have nothing a liberty and freedom, would not be present. America as we know it would not exist. The Girl heserves have made and adopted a new constitution this year so we may give our members more of what we all love—true democracy. When we think at democracy we think of America, the land of freedom, where people aress as they wish serve God as their conscience guides and say what they trink. We, of the Quill and Scroll, have a part with more than just one nation in our organization because we are a society international in scope. Wherever there is a student of journalism answering the requirements of the club, there also is Quill and Scroll. At Brackenridge, we are few in number, but we are proud proud that we could grow from five at our first meeting to nearly twenty and proud always that we have the privileges of a free press. At first, the Quill and Scroll barely existed, but during the meetings of the spring semester, all members arrived in full to give the club a much needed boost. Dues were collected officers were elected, incurred debts were paid. Many of our members leave at commencement, but here's hoping they will be able to follow their journalistic inclinations in this Land of the Free and Home of the Brave. Never more than now is the pen mighty in national detense. Newton McManan.

To uphold Americanism in any line of endeavor, we must have co-operation and there must be a willingness to make sacrifices to reach the goals. This is the basis on which the Diversified Occupations Club operates. Our club began under the airection of Mr. Rampo but he was called to service in the Texas National Guards in November and Mr. Gibreath was appointed to replace him. Our club is open to all who are taking the aliversified occupations class work. This new course is conducted on a study work plan. The morning is spent at school taking regular class work, and in the atternoon members of the class are apprenticed to trades and professions downtown. A study is also made of a wide variety of occupations, and placements are made continually. To all American youths who are interested in their tuture, we cordially open our doors to you one and all. We are preparing ourselves for citizenship in a very practical way.

The purpose of the club is to create a greater interest in the arama and to encourage a sense of individual obligation to our community state and nation. First of all, we had a cake sale and we were very successful. Before election of new members we neid Open House. Then we took the liberty of having a skating party. The University of San Antonio dave us a cue by their tea for the seniors and so we give our own seniors a banquet too. To close the year, we had a picnic, out in the open spaces of Brackenridge Park. This happy occasion was one of several that made us appreciate the treedom and privileges we have in America. The German Club is organized to provide fellowship and good will among the students of German. It is a club entirely American in its beliefs. In our meetings a democratic spirit prevails. We have had several good patrictic programs on national holidays. We have had several picnics, parties at the homes of the members, and a graduation party for the seniors. We have also followed our yearly custom of giving packages of Christmas cookies to the teachers. We have increased our membership over last year's total and had a protitable cake sale. We are proud of our country and are thankful for the protection and the privileges it gives us. We feel continent that without this liberty our country gives us, we could not enjoy the happy lite we do. Our club is one of many clubs in Brackenridge that stand together for Americanism. With such a united group behind it Americanism will triumph. We are ready to do our part.

The Brackentidge chapter of the National Hener Society for Secondary Schools had its inception in the year 1924 with eight students qualifying for membership. The National Association of Secondary School. Principals realizing that throughout the nation schools were teeling the need of some uniform method of recognizing scholarship, organized the National Honor Society. The rules and activities of the society are supervised by the National Council consisting of nine members. School officials all over the United States were delighted with this step toward uniformity in rewarding outst in ling work for not only did it do away with many local scholarship, societies, but it gave an added meaning to members whose standing is at once recognizable in any state or college if they wear the society emblem. Many young lives have been influenced by the ideals of the society.

Eligibility to membership in the society rests upon the strong base of scholarship. From the highest third of the senior class in scholarship, a maximum of fitteen percent of the class may be elected. This year's group of 92 is one of the largest to be initiated. If he is of unimpeachable character, if he has rendered service to the school in some special field and if he has shown some degree of leadership in the extra curricular activities and the community life of the institution a student is considered worthy of membership. A beautiful certificate of membership bearing the Brackenindge school seal and a replica of the emblem of the society is presented to each student receiving the honor of membership on the day he is initiated. In 1974. Principal Marshall Johnston launched Brackenindge Chapter number 1.36 of the National Honor Society. Mrs. Roselle has sponsored every initiation ceremony.

THIS IS AMERICA

The youth is playing in his vard today.

A drone o'erhead, he stops to look on high.

The plane, 'tis true, may be an Army plane

He need not run; this is America.

This youth goes in the woods with gun on arm,
But he goes peacefully and not with hate.
He goes to shoot wild game and not a man;
We need not fear; this is America.

This youth should be so glad that he is here.
And not in war torn countries 'cross the sea.
He should give thanks each day throughout the year.
He can be gay; this is America.

Congratulations!

JOSKE'S and the Youth of Southwest Texas have long been "good companions." For JOSKE'S is more than just a store, it's a personality . . . always hospitable, always ready to serve you through large stocks, newest fashions and values that let you keep to your budget. Young folks like the warm friendliness of this store and you see them here often, buying with the confidence they place in a real friend.

Because of this deep friendship between Youth and a Store, Joske's has grown steadily greater. It's now considered one of the most beautiful stores in America.. like a whole city of shops under one roof - always waiting to please you, your family, your friends.
